Power Knowledge Performance
January 17-18, 2011 - Boynton Beach, FL

Take your game to a higher level with this advanced practitioner's course. Designed for serious facilitators and decision-makers, the EC Black Belt course builds upon the EC Green Belt™. This course will deepen your knowledge and skills in key areas of collaboration, prioritization and decision-making.

By joining us in Boynton Beach, FL, you will engage in live modeling and facilitation exercises and have extensive access to our top consultants to help you work through and model real decision challenges.

Lively and engaging, the Expert Choice Black Belt course could very well be the best two days you ever spent in learning/training.

Key Benefits of the EC Black Belt Training Program:

- Advanced modeling concepts
- Comparisons with other methodologies
- Deployment templates, processes and best practices
- Application-specific learning to advance your facilitations
- Significant knowledge transfer to sustain your growth

Topics	Description
EC Green Belt Refresher	A condensed refresher of the EC Green Belt course to bring everyone to a common starting point.
Advanced Decision-Making Concepts	Take your knowledge of decision-making to a higher plane. Covers the nature of decisions, the interaction of emotion and reason in decision making, advanced modeling concept, a deep-dive on the Analytic Hierarchy Process (AHP) methodology and underlying mathematics, and a comparison of AHP with alternative decision-making methods.
Advanced Deployment Processes and Techniques	Go beyond basic decision techniques with an advanced process roadmap for making your decision successful. Based on learning's gleaned from hundreds of deployments, you will learn advanced deployment process that will help you and your team reach the best conclusions quickly while building alignment, buy-in and confidence.
Specific Applications	You will be provided with in-depth knowledge transfer and practice on the most common and challenging application areas, to include: prioritization and choice decisions (strategic planning, vendor selection, trade studies, forecasting, risk assessment, and market research) and portfolio decisions (project portfolio management, capital investment portfolios). You will learn best practices in each of these areas, and will be provided with advanced templates to kick start your performance.
